

Intestinal 4 in 1

Adeno-Coli Syndrome, Coccidiosis, Canker and bacterial infections in general.

This mix contains a combination of active components that are effective again: the Adeno/E-coli syndrome and Coccidiosis. The Adeno/E-coli syndrome is a problem, that is found in young pigeon populations and can be very harmful. Early treatment is important.

Symptoms

Loss of weight and general condition, vomiting, the droppings are slimy and green, death.

Dosage

Prevention: 1 measuring spoon (=5g) for 2 litres drinking water during 1 or 2 days every 2 weeks, preferably starting the day after the race.

As a treatment: 1 measuring spoon (=5g) for 2 litres drinking water during 5-7 successive days. This cure may be repeated if necessary after a few days.

Contains: Trimethoprim 2,5%, Sulfadiazine Sodium 12,5%, Furaladone HCl 5%, Ronidazole 5%, Colistine Sulfate 2%
Inactive ingredients q.s. to 100 g.

100 g POWDER

Dosage

Preventive: 1 tablet per pigeon (400-500 g bodyweight) for 1-2 consecutive days.

Curative: 1 tablet per pigeon (400-500 g bodyweight) for 3-5 consecutive days, or as Vet. prescribes.

50 pcs TABS

Contains: Trimethoprim 37,5 mg/g ; Sulfamethoxazole 187,5 mg/g